3-axis CNC machines (VMC) - STYLE - BT 1500 - MACH-ID 9263

Introducing the durable and reliable STYLE BT 1500, an expertly crafted 3-axis CNC machine dating back to 2005. Perfectly suited for both new and experienced operators, this used BT 1500 maintains an optimal balance between power and precision for consistent high-performance results.

This machine comes with a significant X/Y/Z Travel of 1500/650/650 mm, guaranteeing broad manoeuvrability for your metalworking needs. Its robust table, with 1850 mm length and 610 mm width, can comfortably handle a load of up to 1000 kg. Coupled with the 8000 mm/min feed rate on all axes, the STYLE BT 1500 assures you of enhanced productivity without compromising on quality.

One of the leading features of the second-hand BT 1500 is its 14 kW power spindle. This brings about swift speeds of up to 6000 RPM and is equipped with an automatic tool changer (ATC) with a 24 tool capacity. This suggests a brilliant efficiency is on your horizon. Additionally, the BT 1500 offers both reliability and versatility thanks to its spindle taper of ISO/Bt/Mk 40 and its enhanced coolants system.

Whether you're contour milling, slotting, drilling, or performing other complex metalworking tasks, the STYLE BT 1500 is an excellent addition to your machinery arsenal. This pre-owned BT 1500 machine has been meticulously selected by Mach 4 Metal, assuring you receive a machine that is reliable and much worthy of investment.

In addition, the STYLE BT 1500 features an enclosed housing for improved safety and noise reduction, and it comes with STYLE's upgraded 2021 software and a practical chip conveyor. This machine is ready to operate under power, ensuring immediate productivity.

If you're interested in the STYLE BT 1500 or have any queries, don't hesitate to get in touch with our team.
